Q1. How many youth need to be serviced through the after school conflict resolution programming?
   A. It will depend on the number of indicated youth that are either referred or identified as needing conflict resolution and mediation services.

Q2. How frequently do grantees need to meet with the youth?
   A. The RFA does not detail the frequency of programming. Applicants should describe the conflict resolution and mediation program and all components as stated in the Program Design A.2.6.

Q3. Is the focus on getting youth to and from schools safely or is the focus on getting youth to and from their homes safely?
   A. The SPSB programs will place trained adults on identified safe routes for students as they travel to and from school.